

EMS-PATVAG s.r.o., operating in the Czech Republic since 2008, wants to be a modern and prosperous company with a solid market position in the field of initiator production and equipment for safety systems, not only in the automotive industry.

Management EMS-PATVAG s.r.o. expects that the requirement for continuous improvement will become a commitment for all employees. Quality responsibility lies with employees at all levels of management and employment, each being responsible for the work he performs himself and the services he provides.

Based on the context of the organization, the management of the company announces the following Quality Policy:

- The quality of our products and services is an essential tool for meeting the requirements and expectations of customers.
- Safety at work and active environmental protection is a permanent task for all employees.
- Prevention of defects in all activities of the company, applying all available principles, using corrective measures.
- Through the training and qualification of staff, the improvement of the procedures used, the regular checks and the analysis of the results achieved, work on the further development of our quality management system.
- Compliance of all activities within the Company's scope of business with customer requirements, legal orders, and product quality, processes, and Quality Management System activities.
- Inadmissibility of stagnation of technical level, quality and processing of realized products.
- Applying the principles of continuous improvement of efficiency of all quality management system processes.

Brankovice, January 2018

Aleš Havránek
Managing director

Ivan Botek
Operations Manager

Pavel Mik
Quality manager